

JOURNAL

Monday

Today I got up early to be able to go to work on time. There was a lot to do and in the evening I was happy to relax at home.

Tuesday

In my German class we reviewed some difficult grammar structures and I was surprised that I could remember a lot of it.

Wednesday

Today I have done little, so I can not report much.
I had time for myself and watched a German movie on my sofa.

Thursday

After work I went to a gathering with two of my good friends. We met at a small café downtown and had a lively chat.

Friday

Finally, the end of the week is here. I spent the morning catching up on some commitments and had the rest of the day off.

Saturday + Sunday

Due to the nice weather in Berlin I was able to do some activities in outdoors. I went on a long bike tour and met up with friends in the park.
